OUR TEAM

MIRO SECURITY

Miro Kubicek:

With his European upbringing, Miro is bringing an ever so needed breath of fresh air and originality in to the industry. As an ex head door man at Tank Nightclub (top 10 nightclubs in the world during his reign), he knows how important is to understand client's needs and requirements, his dedication and hard work makes every job very special - he will move mountains for his clients!

Anthony Dilio:

Anthony has been working the club/bar scene in Los Angeles as a host/security for fourteen years. Anthony has vast experience in customer service /people relations. Anthony served in the United States Marine Corp as infantry, his discipline and attention to detail has served us well.

Kyle Lavelle:

Kyle has extensive experience in the nightlife and hospitality industry. Always has a positive attitude and is great at diffusing hostile situations. Customer service is his specialty and always makes sure that the client has the best experience possible. Operational management is never the same without Kyle.

Matt Brown:

Matt has multiple years of experience in the security field ranging from commercial, high-rise, night life, public and private events. He excels at critical thinking and responding quickly for any issues that may arises in a moments notice. He's a strong component to any team he's placed on because of his drive for success, which brings positive results/experiences for the clients and guests alike.
